

Mormon Boys

Rex Navarrete

I like mormon boys and i cannot lie
You other sisters can't deny
When a guy walks in with scriptures in his hand
And a big smile on his face you get a

A celestial mate
But wait
He's leaving on a mission
Leaving you wishin' that you had a man
Someone to hold your hand.

Deacons, what?
Teachers, what?
We don't like your features
Your brother's hot and you are not
So bring on the righteous priests

Huh!
