Granger Smith

I'm over the top, I say what I think,
I get out of hand with too many drinks.
I hate to be wrong when I know that I am,
I need to be strong when sometimes I can't.
And just when I think I'm complicating things

She makes it so easy,
She means it when she talks about loving me so completely
She knows just who I am.
I'm a sinner, she's grace,
I'm leather, she's lace,
And we fit perfectly
She makes it so easy
To be me.

I'm strong in the head, a dreamer at heart,
I don't finish everything that I start.
I'm easily mad, quick to the draw,
Slow to give in when it's all my fault.
But she's on my side through all my stubborn pride.

She makes it so easy,
She means it when she talks about loving me so completely
She knows just who I am.
I'm a sinner, she's grace,
I'm leather, she's lace,
And we fit perfectly
She makes it so easy
To be me.

It's hard enough to give your heart to someone,
It's hard enough to get back the same.
It's hard enough to find your own angel,
It's hard enough to make her stay.

But she makes it easy,
She means it when she talks about loving me so completely
She knows just who I am.
I'm a sinner, she's grace,
I'm leather, she's lace,

And we fit perfectly
She makes it easy
To be me.

Easy...
