It Won't Happen Again

No Use For A Name

It's been a long time since I've put up with you
It's been a long time since I've dealt with you
The complaining and moaning and bitching and groaning
Laughing and hating and silence and frustration
It's been a long time and I'm not about to let it happen again
Why is that you persist
My only reaction can be to resist,
You enter my life and only cause strife
It's been one time to many
I've had it!

What can I do with you
These times are too hard for me to see through
Why is it always the same
Your existence alone drives me insane
When I look around you're always there hounding me
No matter what I do, it seems that I can't break free
Won't let it happen again
That's right, I need some room to breathe
So I act mean to make you leave, but you don't understand!
