

I Could Be There For You

Eisley

She's in sulfur in the night
All her friends say
Ring ring ring ring where are you hiding?
Ring ring ring ring where are you hiding?
Could you open your door?
Oh could you open your door? I could be there for you
Oh I could be there for you
I could be there for you
I will be there for you oh Love is a false dart driven into your heart
And I could be there for you
I could be there for you
I could be there for you
I will be there for you oh Would someone please walk through with me?
I've got nothing to hide, nowhere to be
Why do we have to come through here
'Cause nothing leads me to you 'Cause you are nothing what you seem You're always looking out for me
'Cause you are nothing what you seem
You're always looking out for me You'll never contemplate that I am near
And help goes unseen
You're a cave, admitting who you choose
And I could be there for you I could be there for you
Oh I could be there for you
I could be there for you
I will be there for you oh
