She Don't Know

Grammatrain

gabrielle don't need love any more tries to hide herself behind her door her hatred is sacred gabrielle don't need love any...
used to be alive inside her dreams her life is so much harder than it seemed she doesn't know what's said from voices in her head mother cries red tears for her she don't know you no more she don't even know herself
i didn't mean to push her i did nothing to push her isn't love and blood supposed to make her stay
