

Golden Arrow (La Rochelle Band Remix)

Lilja Bloom

We're driving home it's been a long way, baby.
From light of morning to full moon.
So don't look back,
We took the right way baby,
From covert black to yellow moon. With my bow and golden arrow,
I defend our bonds of love.
Can you feel them all around you?
This love is all I ever dreamed of.
Will you share your dreams with me?
Would you share them all? Don't you hide behind your thoughts,
Open up for love.
Will you share your dreams with me?
Would you share them all?
Don't you hide behind your thoughts,
Open up for love. We're driving home it's been a long way, baby.
From light of morning to full moon.
So don't look back,
We took the right way baby,
From covert black to yellow moon.
