

Words Can't Explain

Quintin Gerard W.

Once upon a day, love walked away
Soon after, I would learn, only never to return Feeling life was through, like it was till you, saved me before I drowned, put me up on dry ground And I meant what I said, when I told you
I'll never love like this again
I wanna hold you, in my arms, wrap my legs (something, something) If only words could explain,
I'd sit and tell you now how I feel about everything
I'd never let you down, and you better believe, you can count on me
I couldn't ask for a better prayer
I'll never love like this again, oh no! This love is real, so much I feel it so deep inside, as though our hearts would synchronize
Now since you came and colored up my life
I'd never make it in black and white although there's those shades of gray
You come around and go away And I meant what I said, when I told you
I'll never love like this again
I wanna show you, you're in my heart, in my soul, you're all I want to know If only words could explain,
I'd sit and tell you now how I feel about everything
I'd never let you down, and you better believe, you can count on me What does it really mean
I'll never know for sure
To know what to believe
How to know what I'm feeling
I'm going to a place, I've never been before
I just can't help myself, can't help what I'm doing SOLO If only words could explain,
If only words could explain,
If only words could explain,
Oh, baby how I feel
