

Ain't Enough

Army of Anyone

The only thoughts I've had
Put me in pools of red
If only I could break looseThe only dreams I've had Stay locked inside my head
If only I could hear youMore than love is needed this time
Love ain't enoughThe only peaceful place
Is in the cold embrace
Of some truth and honestyWe only hesitate
Because our hands must hate
If only our hearts broke throughMore than love is needed this time
Love ain't enoughSo give us some patience
Because our hearts can't teach us
So give us some patience
Because our hearts can't lead us, yeahMore than love is needed this time
Love ain't enough, yeah
More than love is needed this time
Love ain't enough, ain't enough, ain't enough
