

Miss Teen Massachusetts

Skaters

I never look good
Cos it's so hard to do
This salutation is made just for you
And I know
It won't change your mind I tell you something cos you asked for the truth
You say I'm sick of this, fuck
Well, I'm sick of it too
I know we've done this before But I guess I'll never change your mind
No I guess I'll never change your mind
But I'll try When you catch me walkin' down your street
Falling over my endless sleep
Well you know, I'm keeping round your door And if I'm running out of words
Speaking out of turn
And chilling at the top (unsure?)
Can't carry it that far Well you know, you know the reason why But I guess I'll never change your mind
No I guess I'll never change your mind
But at least you know how hard I tried
Well I guess I'll never change your mind Well I guess I'll never change your mind
No I guess I'll never change your mind
But at least you know how hard I tried
Well I guess I'll never change your mind
