

Road to Destruction

Endeverafter

As I close my eyes, I just don't feel myself
I'm speaking foreign tongue, and a voice of someone else
And I've been a sinner baby, with no soul left to sell
I've got a love for lust, and a lusty thirst to kill.

Look at the blood on my hands now,
There's not a breath left to breathe,
This is the road to destruction,
That I never can leave.

It's passion that I crave,
This time he's taking over, and everyone gets slain,
And I am a killer baby, a sinner and a saint,
I've got a thirsty for war and a will to dominate.

And now the war is upon us.
Are you ready to bleed.
This is the road to destruction.
And no-one gets to leave.

(Solo 1)

All this will only lead to inevitability
And your prize is your demise as hard as the air you breathe.
Something about the way I feel when I hear you scream
Is it wrong it turn me o and haunts me in my dreams

Aren't we havin' fun,
On the road to destruction.
Aren't we havin' fun,
On the road to destruction.
Baby here we come...

(Solo 2)

I just can't seem to shake this hate inside of me.
And it burns, it twists and turns in the face of my enemies.
Now is the bloodstain play of a ruthless liberty.
So before your one last breath, oh baby let me hear scream

Aren't we havin' fun,
On the road to destruction.
Nowhere you can run,
On the road to destruction.
Baby here we come...

(Solo 3)

Road to destruction
Aren't we havin' fun
On the road to destruction
Nowhere you can run,
On the road to destruction
Dirty deeds been done...
