Paradise

Tree63

I yearn to be free
I long to escape gravity
Under the light of the stars
I speak Your name
And I wait for an answerThere must be more
I've heard You callingI believe You'll rescue me
Lift me out of this twilight
Your paradise is in my sight
Lift me into the morning lightI stare into space
Somewhere beyond, there's a place
A Kingdom I see in my dreams
Where I can run for as far as my eyes can see
I'm making for a distant shore
Have mercy on me, set me free
