Be There (feat. London Jae)

T.I.

When the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you lookin' in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when they say that all hope is gone and all lost is lost, yeah
And when you look up in the stars, hopin' I can fly where you are, I'ma be there
And when the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you look up in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when it's all said and done and ain't no one else to call, no
And when you look around it was you that did it allIf it all fall down, when the smoke clear look around
Betcha see me standin' on a pile
If it all go to hell, I'ma fire a blunt up in the air
Say sum'n for my partners if they there
I declare, I ain't a shoe-in to get in Heaven
But I can make it if God in a good mood, bein' fair
Allow me to prepare 'cause I know that death comin'
They can make excuses, they be runnin' from truth
It make they stomach hurt
Further more, a nigga that don't want a revolution
These nigga wanna rap verse
Nigga wanna spit a verse
And then write about things they didn't do
See I ain't never did that shit to you
Been a hundred from the start, look
We just a monumental, legendary shit, glad I was a part of it
So even if we part ways, we'll always have the good days
And they gon' always be there, yeah
When the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you lookin' in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when they say that all hope is gone and all lost is lost, yeah
And when you look up in the stars, hopin' I can fly where you are, I'ma be there
And when the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you look up in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when it's all said and done and ain't no one else to call, no
And when you look around it was you that did it allHey, when your back against the wall, you think all lost
I'm in your mind helpin' you examine all thoughts
Fuck what them niggas talk about, just talkin'
That's just their way of sayin' that they don't see me that often
I be here for ya, when them niggas get too weird for ya
That shit they make don't feel real to ya
See me every year they like, 'damn, he been around for a long time'

But it better when he here, we know he definitely real
And that should be the deal breaker
I outta call these niggas soft, shakin'
They be droppin' salt on a player like they killin' a snail
Few years ago they better get me, that shit still in the air
Bitch, I'ma be here, huh
I drop shit when I feel like it
Long as I know that I came from real with all my real niggas and they still with me, I'm cool
Until you get what you supposed to, I'ma keep the champagne cold for the toast
I'ma be here
When the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you lookin' in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when they say that all hope is gone and all lost is lost, yeah
And when you look up in the stars, hopin' I can fly where you are, I'ma be there
And when the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you look up in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when it's all said and done and ain't no one else to call, no
And when you look around it was you that did it allWhen the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you lookin' in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when they say that all hope is gone and all lost is lost, yeah
And when you look up in the stars, hopin' I can fly where you are, I'ma be there
And when the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you look up in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when it's all said and done and ain't no one else to call, no
And when you look around it was you that did it allWhen the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you lookin' in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when they say that all hope is gone and all lost is lost, yeah
And when you look up in the stars, hopin' I can fly where you are, I'ma be there
And when the sun goes down and ain't nobody around, I'ma be there
And when you tryna find forever and you look up in the clouds, I'ma be there
And when it's all said and done and ain't no one else to call, no
And when you look around it was you that did it allYou know what they say
What the Devil mean for bad, God use it for good, right?
Well, I'm sure the people who put crack cocaine in our communities infested us with all this hate, all these guns,
all this violence, all this rage
You see they never counted on us takin' those very experiences, packaging them as philosophical presentations set to music about the experiences
And how many people would relate to it and how much commerce would come from it
Yeah, they didn't count on that
Heh, that they dumb ass
It's trap music
