

Don't Know Someone

Vybz Kartel

So all my time just gone
All these years
Yeah dem waste it
No matter if mi rob every watch inna the fucking jewelery store
Den mi cyaa get back the time Tell the window mi feel the pain
Fuck the gyal, the gyal go breed,
Then mi say fam-bily mi need
Cumulus clouds, the king fi reign
Buh you don't know someone till you know someone
Then you tell yourself
Likkle of something better than most of none
Then you get caught up Life shoulda have a shortcut
Fi mi look, inna the future
Fi see, if me waah go
Or me naah go, (hiss teeth)
You too lie
And if you lie wid flea, you rise wid dog mah warn you
Wah make you never warn mi say me alone cyaa get the punany
(Bitch) Buh you don't know someone till you know someone
Then you tell yourself
Likkle of something better than most of none
Then you get caught up
Don't insult mi IQ
You convince, you self seh the lie true
Then you try tell me, a two ears that fly through
Why through everything,
You never say you was a bitch you just a say you want wedding ring
A dem ting deh me cant tek
If anything, you cyaa say mi never love you
(I gave you like everything) Buh you don't know someone till you know someone
Then you tell yourself
Likkle of something better than most of none
Then you get caught up Warning sign in front a me
From day one mi see it mi blind
Me and you deh fi one year straight
Before you tek off you ex-man name Buh you don't know someone till you know someone
Then you tell yourself
Likkle of something better than most of none
Then you get caught up Tattoo shop never lock

You tek so long fi tek it off
You did a wait pon him fi come back

(Pay attention)

If a girl say she tek two man before she meet you, she really mean twelve man (Don't feel like a joke dawg)Buh you don't know someone till you know someone

Then you tell yourself

Likkle of something better than most of none

Then you get caught upBuh you don't know someone till you know someone

Then you tell yourself

Likkle of something better than most of none

Then you get caught up (Then you get caught up)Buh you don't know someone till you know someone

Likkle of something better than most of none

Then you get caught up

Then you get caught up
