A Gangster's Wife

Ms. Krazie

Ms.Krazie: Hey mijo its me again. I've been trying to call you already, 5 6 times your not picking up your phone and im worried. Yah son las 3 de la manana babe donde estas

Ms.Krazie:

I know i always bring this up, but now its time we talk. Mijo please take a lil minute, sit back and relax. Listen to my words, I aint trying to be your moms. Te quiero mucho porfavor and i deserve to know whats up. All those late night calls when you gotta bounce. Your homies coming first, whats that all about? I feel in love with a gangster, yeah thats right but i dont think you realize how i hurt inside. Always worrying mi pelon If your coming home. Thats why i call you so much when you leave me alone. I dont wanna bug, and this i promise you but in this situation its so hard to trust you. I care about you so much, loving you like crazy, all i really want it to have your lil baby. Tell me that you love me, you would never leave. soy la reina de tu vida, and your happy to be with me.

Chorus:

Ms.Krazie: Daddy let me know that im your only girl. The only man that i need in this gangster world is youuu, and i wouldnt trade it.

Chino Grande: So why you think i would lie. Wont you tell me girl. The only one that i need in my gangster life is youu. and i wouldnt trade it.

Chino Grande:

See in know its been a struggle i can see in your eyes. Tear drops, they fall, get me every time. Baby girl dont cry understand that i try. The only hope that i hold in my gangster life. I hold you dear to my heart thought im out in the night. Trying to make a lil money then come home to a fight. A little fuss cant trust then its never enough. women embraced in this thing called love. Althought i leave so prestige with my head on my heat. I got a jar full of boozers so we could eat. Comprehend that i spend most my time on the street. And all these other wicked women dont matter to me. Its not like im just trying to get up and leave. I work hard everyday in the face of defeat. I stop my feet to a pride knowing that your by my side. What you think i would just let you walk on by.

Chorus:

Ms.Krazie: Daddy let me know that im your only girl. The only man that i need in this gangster world is youuu, and i wouldnt trade it.

Chino Grande: So why you think i would lie. Wont you tell me girl. The only one that i need in my gangster life is youu. and i wouldnt trade it.

Ms.Krazie:

I understand what your telling me but its so hard. always fuss and we fight till we back at the start. te amo te quiero mi krazie vato gangero. Se lo que yo tengo contigo pero te tengo. I know you mean well when you hold me tight. The only one who can handle me like during a fight. An di cherish all the times that i spend with you. Hold your pictures in my hands when i pray for you. If this is gangster love then im done for what ever. Lay me down on the cama and enjoy that we're together. Turn on the candles hickies on my cuello. Mi firme veterano, mi firme pandillero. Always down to ride with you like Bonnie and Clyde with you. I always stand with you Forever be true keep you on my mente siempre mi vida. Im a gangsters wife to and anyboody killer.

Chorus:

Ms.Krazie: Daddy let me know that im your only girl. The only man that i need in this gangster world is youuu, and i wouldnt trade it.
Chino Grande: So why you think i would lie. Wont you tell me girl. The only one that i need in my gangster life is youu. and i wouldnt trade it.
