

Forget the Past

Coathanger Abortion

You'll be the wave that will gain
You'll have the water on stain
You'll be there calling my nameJamie, JamieYou'll have a warrant to kill
All of my fears and then spill
Into me all of your willFind me, find me
Find me, find me
Find me, find meMy Love, my love
My Love, my loveYou'll be the essence of fire
You'll take hold of my desire
You'll make me bald and inspireKnow me, know meYou'll be the eye of the storm
You'll be the letters of Rome
You'll be the dreams that I've tornKnow me, know me
Know me, know me
Know me, know meMy Love, my love
My Love, my loveFind me inside
The calm of the storm
While lovers decide
What might come with it all
We sit on the grass
Wait for machines
And wait for the pastFind me inside
The calm of the storm
While lovers decide
What might come with it all
We sit on the grass
Wait for machines
And wait for the pastYou'll be the wave that will gain
You'll have the water on stain
You'll be there calling my nameJamie, Jamie
