It's Okay

Next

You tellin' me you wanna come over
But girl I done told ya
I don't know if I could control myself
I would love to just kiss and hold ya
Movies, popcorn and soda
But imagine us all by ourselvesWe'd be kissin', skin to skin, wearin'
Nothin' who knows where we end
But what you can stay if you really want, it's okayIt's okay, it's alright you can spend the night
If you promise that you'll hold me tight
And I would like for you to love me, love meBaby it's okay, it's alright you can spend the night
If you promise that you'll hold me tight
And I would like for you to love me, love me, IMay be I've been thinkin' to myself
If I ever had you alone what I'd do to you
What you'd do to me, everything in between
But wait I don't wanna hurry you
Don't get it twisted though baby girl
C'ause I ain't scared of youThere'll be kissin', skin to skin, wearin' nothin'
Who knows where we end
But you can stay, if you really want
It's okayIt's okay, it's alright you can spend the night
If you promise that you'll hold me tight
And I would like for you to love me, love meBaby it's okay, it's alright you can spend the night
If you promise that you'll hold me tight
And I would like for you to love me, love me'Cause baby I wanna make love
But I don't wanna rush
You, you mean everything to me though
To make you happy is what I want to doI dreamed of this for so long
And if it's what you want
C'mon now, kissin', skin to skin
We'll be wearin' nothin'
Who knows where we endIt's okay, it's alright you can spend the night
If you promise that you'll hold me tight
And I would like for you to love me, love meIt's okay, it's alright you can spend the night
If you promise that you'll hold me tight
And I would like for you to love me, love meFirst comes off the shirt then
Then comes off that pants then
Then comes off the bra thenFirst comes off the shirt then
Then comes off that pants then
Then comes off the bra thenFirst comes off the shirt then

Then comes off that pants then
Then comes off the bra thenFirst comes off the shirt then
Then comes off that pants then
Then comes off the bra then
