

Can't Take My Joy Away

VaShawn Mitchell

Persecuted but not forsaken

Cast down but not destroyed

I have something this world can't away from me.No matter how hard you try you can take it.

I may even have to cry but I'll make it.

There's joy for my sorrow

Hope for tomorrow

I have something this world can't take away...In the midst of my trials I will be alright

In the midst of my pain I know I will I'll survive.

There's joy for my sorrow

I have hope for my tomorrow

I have something this world can't away...

Persecuted but not forsaken

Cast down but not destroyed

I have something this world can't take

I have something this world can't take away from me.Can't take my joy away.I'm a survivor, I'll make itI'll make it.
