Everything Will Be Fine

BJ Sam

EVERYTHING WILL BE FINE

I've tried everything possible in live Just to reach the limelight
But many times I've been knock down
And I just don't know why I've been through many hard times in live it just seem too much for me to bear A times I just feel like giving up coz I feel discourage to press on I feel so disappointed rejected by those I thought loves me it seem no body want to see me but now I can hear a voice whispering

Don't worry
Everything will be fine o [will be fine
he told me not to worry [don't worry
he told me not to worry [don't worry

Now I'm determined press on in spite of the thorns & scopions I'm sure no matter the thunder the storm will soon be over

So I'll dive till reach the peak I'll keep trying till I make it suicide will never cross my mind cos I know everything will be fine no mattter how life may be becomes rough I'll will wait for my change to come I wouldn't give up till I wear the crown I'll be strong & be courageous cos he told me not worry [don't worry

he told me not to worry [don't worry

bridge
I believe it will be fine 2x
Even if I have no money now
I believe it will be fine 2x
Even if I have no food to eat now I believe it'll be fine 2x

cos he told me not worry [don't worry
he told me not to worry [don't worry
