

Secrets Don't Make Friends

From First to Last

This place is a bloodbath
And won't be taken alive
We stand alone
Under fictitious skies You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise
You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise Our hearts beat strong
Under fictitious skies
You were always my enemy
You suck the life out of me Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall You were my compass
Leading me to nowhere fast
Promises were lonely roads
I followed you down like a map You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise
You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise Our hearts beat strong
under fictitious skies
You were always my enemy
You suck the life out of me Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall Fuck you
Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make friends
