

Jenny

Death By Unga Bunga

I heard that you'll be leaving for a while.
I'll do anything to see your smile
just one more time before you leave me.

Is there anything that I could say or do to show you that I really care about you?
Just one last touch before you crush me,

Jenny

The further we drift apart the faster you break my heart
What do I have to say to make you my love and to stay.

One more day

Trying the best I can to show you that I'm your man.
What would I have to do, there's nobody else quite like you
Only you.

Is the weather getting cold or is it me?
'cause without you there is no one there to care for me,
so let's just kiss until you kill me,

Jenny

The further we drift apart the faster you break my heart.
What do I have to say to make you my love and to stay,
one more day.

Trying the best I can to show you that I'm your man.
What would I have to do, there's nobody else quite like you,
only you.

I heard that you'll be leaving for a while.
I'll do anything to see your smile
just one more time before you leave me,

Jenny
