

Someone To Love

Joseph Arthur

In the time of my dying
I was making promises I couldn't keep
Lying to you
You and me
Held by my addiction
Everything I thought I needed
I couldn't keep
If I was to get myself free

You got to let somebody
Into your hurt
You got to let somebody
Feel in your hurt
Someone to love, someone to love, someone to love...

I came to live in your shelter
Cause there's never a day when I'm not afraid
Looking for an answer
Mentally I was no more than a slave
Will you help me surrender?
You said I have to become a dancer
And started shooting at my feet

You got to let somebody
Into your hurt
You got to let somebody
Feel in your hurt
Someone to love, someone to love, someone to love...

I did believe in your answer
But you said I've still got a long way to go
Cause the day won't remember
What the years dying for you to know
Who you are
Once you find out you've probably already gone to far
To ever find your way back home

You got to let somebody

Into your hurt
You got to let somebody
Feel in your hurt
Someone to love, someone to love, someone to loveâ€¦ (3x)
Someone to loveâ€¦
