

There Will Be No Christmas

Crown the Empire

I had trouble with the second verse, so if you send corrections, that's be great!

Sometimes I wish weâ€™d never spoken
Sometimes I wish weâ€™d never met
Sometimes I wish our love never had a chance to start and Sometimes I wish I had you back

I wish this love, it didnâ€™t autumn???????
That way itâ€™d float off in the breeze
Instead the star descend
Iâ€™m all alone, its all Iâ€™ve ever been

And since you left

There will be no Christmas
At least not for me
Cause this year Iâ€™m all alone
Waiting for the spring
There will be no Christmas
No Santa, no sleigh
But I hope that you know
That through it all, I still wish you a Happy Holiday

(There will be no Christmas, I wish you a Happy Holiday x3)

There will be no Christmas
At least not for me
Cause this year Iâ€™m all alone
Waiting for the spring
There will be no Christmas
No Santa, no sleigh
But I hope that you know
That through it all, I still wish you a Happy Holiday
