Fool For You

Simon Webbe

Stood here in the rain, I see her looking over
I got so much to say I wish that I could hold her oh yeah
Memories come flooding back now
Reminisce when we kiss, I can taste her lips now
Here's my chance to put things right now
Take it slow, let her know, exactly what you're feeling
I've let go of my foolish pride oh yeah
I'm gonna share those tears that fall inside oh yeahI'm giving you all that I am, take it all, take it all
I threw away the love we had
Was such a fool to let you go
I won't relax till I get her back in my arms
'Cause I am still the fool, but for youSat down and we're talking I think we're getting closer oh yeah
Laughing and we're joking, maybe this ain't over, oh noMemories come flooding back now
Table for two, dej vu
Will she stay or will she go now
Take it slow, let her know exactly what you're feelingGirl I'm done with all those lies
I've turned my life around and you're the reason why, oh yeahI'm giving you all that I am, take it all, take it all
I threw away the love we had
Was such a fool to let you go
I won't relax till I get her back in my arms
'Cause I am still the fool, but for you, yeahI won't let you down again oh no
I didn't mean to do you wrong
Time has showed that you're the oneI'm giving you all the I am
I threw away the love we had
Was such a fool to let you go
I won't relax till I get her back in my arms
'Cause I am still the fool, but for youI'm giving you all the I am
I threw away the love we had
Was such a fool to let you go
I won't relax till I get her back in my arms
'Cause I am still the fool, but for you
