

Tuck Your Shirt in

Holly Valance

My name is Holly
And I like I'm so glad that you asked me out tonight
Our conversation over dinner was really nice
But don't forget you still owe me dessert It's twelve and we missed the late show
So let's head over to this joint that I know
Every time I take someone it's always such a ride But there's a dress code
You've got to follow
There's no exceptions
And once you're in If you want T M A
You better need to be
Quit breakin'
But before you enter
Tuck your shirt in No way you'll get rid of
The other clothes
If you don't follow this
One moment
Tuck your shirt in La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la We're probably gonna need to call a cab
Ten minute walk over there and back
But I think it's best
We save our energy Tonight, I'm really on the grind
Otherwise I'd normally wait a while Before I'd ask
Somebody to my party But there's a dress code
You've got to follow
There's no exceptions
And once you're in If you want T M A
You better need to be
Quit breakin'
But before you enter
Tuck your shirt in No way you'll get rid of
The other clothes
If you don't follow this
One moment
Tuck your shirt in Ah
Uh
La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la

La la la la la, la, laBut there's a dress code

You've got to follow

There's no exceptions

And once you're in(No)

If you want T M A

You better need to be

Quit breakin'

But before you enter

Tuck your shirt in

(Whoa, oh)No way you'll get rid of

The other clothes

If you don't follow this

One moment

Tuck your shirt inT M A

You better need to be

(You better)

Quit breakin'

(Ya)

But before you enter

(Ya)

Tuck your shirt in

(Oh)No way you'll get rid of

The other clothes

If you don't follow this

One moment

La la la la la, la, la
