Tuck Your Shirt in

Holly Valance

My name is Holly

And I likeI'm so glad that you asked me out tonight

Our conversation over dinner was really nice

But don't forget you still owe me dessertIt's twelve and we missed the late show

So let's head over to this joint that I know

Every time I take someone it's always such a rideBut there's a dress code

You've got to follow

There's no exceptions

And once you're inIf you want T M A

You better need to be

Quit breakin'

But before you enter

Tuck your shirt inNo way you'll get rid of

The other clothes

If you don't follow this

One moment

Tuck your shirt inLa la la la la, la

La la la la la. la

La la la la la, la, laWe're probably gonna need to call a cab

Ten minute walk over there and back

But I think it's best

We save our energyTonight, I'm really on the grind

Otherwise I'd normally wait a while

Before I'd ask

Somebody to my partyBut there's a dress code

You've got to follow

There's no exceptions

And once you're inIf you want T M A

You better need to be

Quit breakin'

But before you enter

Tuck your shirt inNo way you'll get rid of

The other clothes

If you don't follow this

One moment

Tuck your shirt inAh

Uh

La la la la, la

La la la la, la

La la la la la, la, laBut there's a dress code

You've got to follow

There's no exceptions

And once you're in(No)

If you want T M A

You better need to be

Quit breakin'

But before you enter

Tuck your shirt in

(Whoa, oh)No way you'll get rid of

The other clothes

If you don't follow this

One moment

Tuck your shirt in TMA

You better need to be

(You better)

Quit breakin'

(Ya)

But before you enter

(Ya)

Tuck your shirt in

(Oh)No way you'll get rid of

The other clothes

If you don't follow this

One moment

Tuck your shirt inLa la la la la, la

La la la la, la

La la la la, la, la
