

You Don't Know (feat. Lil' Mo)

Missy Elliott

Now see, the one thing I like about the niggas
Is that they can fess up to one of they boys
That they been sleepin wit the same chick and laugh about it
But see, a woman, could never admit to another woman
That she been sleepin wit her man 'cuz if that ever happened to me
I would call your house and be like, yoDont you gotta a man? Why you fuckin wit mine?
See, I been through bad times, get yo' mind off mine's
You must be lonely, why you messin wit me?
But it wont be easy to get my babyYou dont know who you messin with
Most of them leave with they car doors bent
Im so pissed, you gon make me flip, hello? Hello? Who dis? It's Mo'
Imma teach you not to touch my shit, for real? Hello?I be callin his house, when youre not around
Dont make me warn you, you know how I get down, down
Somebody told me but I aint trippin off you, no
If you were doin' your thang, he'd still be wit youYou dont know who you messin with
Most of them leave with they car doors bent
Im so pissed, you gon make me flip
Hello? Hello? Hello? You know who this is bitch, yeah
Imma teach you not to touch my shit
Yo, who dis for real, man, hello? You know who it isI cant believe you would ever do that, hello? Hello? What?
