Hideaway

Passion Pit

Cos I love you, in the way that you love me, you're alone darling, and there's nothing to argue, your life revolves to ruin, everyone's watching all that you're doing, say your head's turning, maybe you should start running.
hideaway, hideaway,
where they'll never say you cannot stay,
come and play, my hideaway,
someday everything will be ok.
you're not strong so you, you can hurt her so badly, you don't mean to, hurting her is too maddening, when you do it's a war in your head, what you mean to say isn't always worth sayin', take a deep breath, as soon as you let go.

hideaway, hideaway,
where they'll never say you cannot stay,
come and play, my hideaway,
someday everything will be ok.
what's the point to this,
feeling happiness is life, as we play off all the lines, Oh, as we play into its lines, oh honey.
hideaway, hideaway,
where they'll never say you cannot stay,
come and play, my hideaway,
someday everything will be ok.
