If We Want To

Big D And The Kids Table

I could not ever see myself packing up and taking off just to fall asleep and work again
I will not count my sleep hours Let 'em all just have me all groggy and incoherent I just met a crazy girl who's sane so i'm not about to leave just yet Only an idiot would say "right on i'll see ya" Just to go home and think what coulda been.
We've both finished ripping off all the labels on the pantry cans
We've all succeeded hurling the tv still plugged in down the front stairs.
So Why notChorus:
'cause we can stay if we want toShe could not ever think of leaving everyone she knows is never all in the same place the 8 hours she spends hardly working with this she would gladly replace All she wants is what we want free time laughing with no designated end she told me "i will not be a slave to time, time must learn to roll with me" So why notChorus
'cause we don't care like they doIt cannot stop too many of us laughing each other on we cannot stop we need more trouble before the night is gone
So why notChorusSo why not Chorus:
'cause we don't care like they do 'cause I'm not gonna stay as long as you do.
