Insecurity

Arkarna

Here I sit The world upon my shoulder Think I'd cry without A love to keep me warm And I'm sure The faithfulness grows older I'm as useful As a broken man's reward And so I wait And never see How someone So desired could fall for me Well, it's just one kiss And it'll all crash down Ignorance is bliss In this cold and wet town If I could bring myself To venture through This bold and bruised door Well, I might make it Yeah, I might make it And so I try With all upon my shoulder With a single glance She cuts me to the bone And I stand Regret the things I told her Because the years can teach You things days never know And so I sit

And never see
How someone
So desired could fall for me
Well, it's just one kiss
And it'll all crash down
Ignorance is bliss
In this cold and wet town
If I could bring myself

To venture through This bold and bruised door Well, I might make it Yeah, I might make it Yes, I might make it I don't want to leave I don't want to stay But you tear me up With those insecure ways I don't want to leave I don't want to stay But you tear me up With those insecure ways I don't want to leave I don't want to stay But you tear me up With those insecure ways Insecure ways Insecure ways Insecure ways
