To the End

Lovehatehero

The city lights are in my eyes
And all i need is for this moment
To seperate the truth from lies
I'm sick and tired of the fighting
Let me promise you this hour
Try to see it from your side
I dont belive i have the answers
But i'll do my best this time

Honestly
I will stand by your side
To the end, to the end

Honestly
I will stand by your side
To the end, to the end

I offer you my loving hand
To the end

Let me make this clear
Oh how i love you darling
I'm so afraid of losing you
I'd hold your hand forever
Everything ends sooner or later
With so much left unsaid

Honestly
I will stand by your side
To the ed, to the end

Honestly
I will stand by your side
To the end, to the end

I offer you my loving hand
To the end

Honestly
I will stand by your side

To the end, to the end

Honestly
I will stand by your side
To the end, to the end

I offer you my loving hand
To the end....
