I Saw Your Face

Justin Guarini

Ho yeah
I miss, you knowIt was just another day like the day before
I was walking in the rain with a lonely, lonely heart
I wasn't looking for a change, wasn't looking for a girl
Wasn't looking for a thing, I was cool inside my worldBut you were standing there
Looking outstanding there
I was fallin', I was fallin'
I was fallin' for you girlI started losin' it
I never felt like this
Now I'm callin', now I'm callin', yeahI saw your face and wanted to see
If I could get your name, yeah
I saw your face and I can't believe
I found a miracle, you're so damn beautifulI saw your legs, your thighs, baby, lookin' right
I can't believe my eyes
I saw your face and baby, you know
I found a miracle, you're so damn beautiful, yeahNow I'm all up in a daze, don't know what to do
Everything is out of place since I first saw you
There's just gotta be a way, must be something I can do
Is there nothing I can say? How can I get close to you? Oh babyI saw you standing there, oh yeah
Looking outstanding there
I was fallin', I was fallin'
I was fallin' for you girlI started losin' it, yeah
I never felt like this
Now I'm callin', now I'm callin', yeahI saw your face and wanted to see
If I could get your name, yeah
I saw your face and I can't believe
I found a miracle, you're so damn beautifulI saw your legs, your thighs, baby, lookin' right
I can't believe my eyes
I saw your face and baby, you know
I found a miracle, you're so damn beautiful, ohBaby, you're so beautiful, yeah
I guess I knew it from the moment that I saw you
Girl, there was nothing I could do, baby
I started falling from the second that I saw you
Now I just wanna, I just wanna be close to youI saw your face and wanted to see
If I could get your name, yeah
I saw your face and I can't believe I found a miracle
You're so damn beautifulI saw your legs, your thighs, baby, lookin' right
I can't believe my eyes
I saw your face and baby, you know

I found a miracle, you're so damn beautiful, yeahOh, yeah yeah, babe
Beautiful
BeautifulOh, yeah yeah, girl
Beautiful
BeautifulI saw your face and wanted to see
If I could get your name, yeah
I saw your face and I can't believe
I found a miracle, you're so damn beautifulI saw your legs, your thighs, baby, lookin' right
I can't believe my eyes
I saw your face and baby, you know
I found a miracle, you're so damn beautiful, yeahI saw your face and wanted to see
