

Black Gold

Adam Klein

Top of the world, bottom of the ocean
Top of the world, bottom of the ocean
They built you up and broke you down again
 So now you hope to beat the surf in
 'Cause the future is not what you see
 It's not where you've been to at all
 The future is not what you see
 It's not where you've been to at all
 The future is not what it used to be
 Used to be
 The future is not what it used to be
 Used to be
Top of the world, bottom of the ocean
Top of the world, bottom of the ocean
They lit you up and found the ground again
 So now you know to beat the surf in
 'Cause the future is not what you see
 It's not where you've been to at all
 The future is not what you see
 It's not where you've been to at all
 The future is not what it used to be
 Used to be
 The future is not what it used to be
 Used to be
They buried the gold, your ancestry's sold and left
 Just the residue
They buried the gold, your ancestry's sold and left
 Just the mist of you
They buried the gold, your ancestry's sold and left
 Just the residue
They buried the gold, your ancestry's sold and left
 Just the mist of you
 Now what's happened to you
 Look what's happened to you
 What's happened to you
 Now that spring is finally here
Your hollow heart, your hollow heart
Drive through the forest and into the night
Away from the city, away from the light

Hollow heart, your hollow heart
You know
And we're worlds apart
And we're worlds apart
They gouge you out, they dug you in
They took the name right out of your mouth
Hollow heart, your hollow heart
You know
Worlds apart
And we're worlds apart
Into yourself past of it
Into yourself, into yourself
Into yourself, into yourself
Into yourself, into yourself
