

Change (intro)

Tq

To all my peoples I got a little story to tell straight from the ghetto.
Some of y'all are gon' feel it some of y'all ain't. It don't matter. I'm still gon' tell it. 'Cause I heard a long time ago... A change was gon' to the new millenium baby. Bow down to a new way of life..... Just Coming... That's the way it is. So we here to take you on a joy ride come. And I know you been waitin'... They Never Saw Me wanna say thank you Jesus
