Moonlight In Your Blood

Lillian Axe

I've been watching from across the room
As you free your mind,
They all tell me that you're far away,
I believe I'll stay awhile
I'd like to help you find your golden mileBridge:
Dreaming, Crying, Hoping, Trying,
Praying, Dying,
Gets you through another dayRunning, Flying, Escape, Denying,
No one's trying to explainChorus:
What do you want?
What do you need?
Do you enjoy watching me plead?
What do you see?
Who do you Love?
The moonlight in your blood.
What do you feel?
Who do you love?
There's moonlight in your blood.Spend your nights inside a silk cocoon,
Butterfly,
Your soul could never die,
I see you leave us as you stare at the moon,
And you'll live again,
I only wish that I could share your pain,
What a shame.BridgeChorusChorus
