

Suffocate

Sevendust

Hate all the blood on my hands
And the sins that bleed from my soul
Take, I take it all away make it go awayStand up for bein'
The last one to control
What you're seeing
It starts from me
And the last to knowStand up for bein'
The last one to control
But what you can't see is bein'
The last one to knowFade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself nowFallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the air
Maybe then I wouldn't suffocateFace all the things that were Real to me long ago to save my Name, I never thought it would
Be such a long way to fallStand up for bein'
The last one to control
What you're seeing
It starts from me
And the last to knowStand up for bein'
The last one to control
But what you can't see is bein'
The last one to knowFade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself nowFallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the air
Maybe then I wouldn't suffocateFade into a dream
See me from myself
See me from myselfFade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself nowFallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the air
Maybe then I wouldn't suffocateStand up for bein'
The last one
Stand up for bein'
The last one to fall
Stand up for bein'
The last one
