Green Grass

Bonnie Mckee

Are you leaving,do I feel you disapper
Am I crying
Am I dreaming, will I wake up years ago
Am I dying
Well I rememeber, so long ago
And the sky was still blue,
I was walking and I'm not alone, not alone
And I remember so long ago and I still felt so good
And you told me I could have my way with you
I remember way down inside
You're pretending, make believeing
I'm in charge, I am a child
I am starving, I am eating from your hands
Feed me fiction
Well I remember, so long ago
When we met I was new, and you told me the truth sets you free, yes you did
And I remember so long ago
And the green in your eyes that is something
Inside me that burns, feel it burning,

Way down inside
On that beautiful night, I watched you lay flat
Through the one beautiful [purple?], in the green grass
Where I held you and I went, in the green grass
Where I went, way down inside.
Well I remember so long ago and You said not a word but I know that I heard your goodbye, yes I did
And I remember so long ago
And I knew you were gone but your love lingered on through the years
I still love you, way down inside yea ooo
Would the life [love?] forget the time
Would the soul forget to die
Would the wind forget to sigh
Would my eyes forget to cry
I'll remember like the moon

Way down inside [2x]
