She Walks In So Many Ways

The Jayhawks

She walks in so many ways,
She wonders alone in the shame,
She shakes herself in the glass,
And whispers all things will be silenced.
She turns herself with the scene,
Clouds burst, our eyes never meet
Slow as a, in the sunshine.

Where you go, don't let go,
Where you stand
I will stand stronger than the wind.

We live in houses of light,
Our dreams stay with us at night,
She whispers all things is all right,
All things are just as they should be!

Goodbye
She moves among them,
She lives among them.
Where you go, don't let go,
Where you stand
I will stand stronger than the wind.

She walks in so many ways,
She wonders alone in the shame,
She shakes herself in the glass,
And whispers all things will be silenced.

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com
written by LOURIS, GARY MICHAEL/OLSON, MARK JOHN Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., BUG MUSIC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/