

Never Know

I-Exist

You, left with suitcase in hand, unplanned, you know
That you, should have left me a note, so I'd understand

    Maybe I'm wrong, maybe I'm right

    But it's at this point you should start to cry
    Coz if you start to think about it you'd know

    You left behind something so strong
    But you never gave us time to belong
    The feeling was right but it's come and gone
    And all this time alone has left me thinking

    That I, I don't need you

    BUT you'll never know.....

You, gave no forward address, I'm impressed, and I'm sure
That you, you left with your bitterness, I suggest, insecure

    You should have stayed to give us more time

    You should have said just what was on your mind
    Coz if you'd stopped and thought about it you'd know

    You left behind something so strong
    But you never gave us time to belong
    The feeling was right but it's come and gone
    And all this time alone has left me thinking

    That I, I don't need you

I guess if you'd have thought about it you'd know

    I bet your lying in your bed on your own

    Can't you see you're tired of all your complications

    Trying to fight with your frustrations
    All alone with your heart of stone
    You left behind something so strong
    But you never gave us time to belong
    The feeling was right but it's come and gone
    And all this time alone has left me thinking

    That I, I don't need you

    You left behind something so strong
    But you never gave us time to belong
    The feeling was right but it's come and gone
    And all this time alone has left me thinking

    That I, I don't need you

    But you'll never know

You left with suitcase in hand, unplanned, you know
