

Angels/Losing/Sleep

Our Lady Peace

Looks like the Holy Ghost is gone
Now your afraid of yourself
Over your shoulder you have to watch
Heaven fall into hell
Looks like your boat's about to sink
So it's time to prepare
Even the angels are losing sleep
And the sidewalks are bareIt's like the calm before the storm
You better swim
Just like it's cold before it's warm
You'll get back here again
I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait 'till you fall from grace
It's the calm before the storm
It's there then it's goneIt looks like the wall was in your head
Not your heart
Just when you think it's figured out
Well it all falls apartIt's like the calm before the storm
You better swim
Just like it's cold before it's warm
You'll get back here again
I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait 'till you fall from grace
It's the calm before the storm
It's there then it's goneLooks like the Holy Ghost is gone
Looks like the Holy Ghost is gone
Looks like the walls in your head
Looks like the wall was in your head
Wall was in your headI'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait 'till you fall from grace
It's the calm before the stormI'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait, I'll wait 'till you fall from grace
It's the calm before the storm
It's there then it's gone.
