A MILLION TEARS

æ²–é‡Žä¿®ä¹Ÿ

Take my hand
Break my stride
Make me smile
For every time I've criedHold my heart
In the palm of your hand
Don't listen to it breakin'
Just listen to the bandDo you wanna ride in my car?
Its parked out on the street
Or just stay with me a while
Before I fall asleep?Take these tears
Wash your skin
I'm havin' trouble breathin'
Since you walked inMy hands are tied
My head is reelin'
My eyes have cried
A million tears
From wishin' you were hereAll my life
I've welcomed pain
I've made up more excuses
To bring it back againNow I'm here
And I'll drink to the shame
I'll drink to the madness
That made me this wayMy hands are tied
My head is reelin'
My eyes have cried
A million tears
From wishin' you were hereTake these tears
Wash your skin
I'm havin' trouble breathin'
Since you walked in
