

Never Say Die

Raleigh Ritchie

I lost my mind in a nightclub, bar through
All I could find posses no value
Too many times I said never again
Fooled me twice, all I have is my name. I'm a traveler, journey man, early man
Cape to cave and do it again
Both turning in, spinning, so I heard again, hit the curve again
I'm a poud, burning up,
International mystery man, lonely now I left my mind in Vegas
I left my mind in Reno
I left my mind in London
I left my heart in Rio
If I never make it through the night,
Before I should die
And if this is the last song I write, I lived my life
But I'm a live like a king if it kills me
I'm a kid, seven sins couldn't through me
When it's said and done, I'm not leaving home
I'm a rise again, and I'm a rising up I lost my soul on roulette table,
It never gets old 'cause I'm unstable
Hit the ground, I'm running
Pulls me down, proper coming I know I'm grabbing in, adrenaline
Carring in is my medicine
Bad for me ??? and it's fucking me up
This credit is high on life, think twice
Never say die, I'm fine
I'll pay the paper, whatever the price! I left my mind in L.A.
I left my mind in Dallas
I left my mind in Bristol
I left my heart in Paris
If I never make it through the night,
Before I should die
And if this is the last song I write, I lived my life
But I'm a live like a king if it kills me
I'm a kid, seven sins couldn't through me
When it's said and done, I'm not leaving home
I'm a rise again, and I'm a rising up I'm running, running away
I'm running, running away
Running, I'm running away
Ooh oh I left my mind in Brighton

I left my mind in Rome
I left my mind in Sidney
I left my heart in...FUCK IT!
I never had a heart!

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>