

Sidestep

Robin Thicke

Ohhhh Baby
Come on baby, Come on now
Sidestep
Hey, Don't you sidestep my love
Huh
They say it aint about your car and your house
Or the money you make and how it all goes down
I think that its about keepin ones you love near
That's why im on the hop thinking you should be here
Maybe I should hurry up get by your side
Follow you around just be on your time
Or maybe I should just leave you behind
Maybe Im keeping you from a chance at a better life
Oh
Then I call you and I come out and tell you straight up
Baby I, I need your love
And you go sidestep, Pull me around
Put out your hand, Put me on down and I
Wanna know why, why you don't need my love
Then you go sidestep, Swing me around
Put out your hand, Put me on down and I
Wanna know why, why you aint in no hurry for my love
Oh
Hmmm
You aint in no hurry
Baby
That makes me worry
On the telephone telling me tired of being alone
But we staying up allnight
Talking about I aint doing right
Baby come on
Oh and when I open up and straight up tell you
Baby
A man needs love too
Then you go sidestep
Spin me around, Put out your hand
Put me on down and I, Wonder why you aint
Aint in no hurry for my love
Come on now

Hey baby
Sidestep
Hey
Come on baby
Come on Now

Hey Sidestep Hey
Don't you sidestep my love
Come on baby uh
I drop everything and cancel my plans, uh
And I come to you hat in my hand
Hoping we can find a new way to understand babe
And maybe we can be a better woman and man
Come on now
Oh I need you cause you're my best friend
But I can't believe it, here we go again
When you go sidestep
Pull me around, Put out your hand
Put me on down and I, Wanna know why
Why you don't need my love
Then you go sidestep
Swing me around, Put out your hand
Put me on down and I, Wanna know why
Ooohh
Sidestep
Swing it around, Put out your hand
Put me on down and I, Wonder why you aint
Come on baby
Yeah all right
Oh Sidestep huh
Come on baby
Come on now
Sidestep hey
Swing it around, Pull it on down
Come on
Come on baby
Sidestep
Hey Sidestep my love
Pull me around, Open your heart baby
Don't you sidestep me
Sidestep my love

Come on now
Come on baby
Whoooooooo, aahh
