

Moonchild

Celtus

Sail on moon child
There will come a day I know
Dream of sunlight far far away
Follow the rainbow

Stare into the eyes of love
Come the day when all this hate
Will rust and fade away
Fallen angels walk into the vale of kings

Ride on moon child
Far far away
Follow the rainbow
Stare into the eyes of love

Come the day when all this hate
Will rust and fade away
Follow the rainbow
Stare into the eyes of love

Come the day when all this hate
Will rust and fade away
