

Changes

Jimi Hendrix

Buddy miles is goin' to do something he wrote
Called 'Them changes' Well my mind is goin' through them changes
I feel just like I'm in the time
Every time you see me goin' somewhere
I think I'm goin' out of my mind, yeah Oh, my baby she left me the other day
And we were havin' so much fun yeah, yeah
Oh, my baby she stepped out on me
And that's the reason why she had to part It's alright, oh yeah, yeah
It's alright
What I say
It's alright Well my mind is goin' through them changes
I think I'm goin' out of my mind
Every time you see me goin' somewhere
I think I could commit a crime now She had me runnin'
She had me cryin'
She had me runnin'
Had me, had me, had me cryin'
She had me runnin'
She had me cryin'
She had me runnin' Alright, yeah
It's alright I said my mind is goin' through them changes
I work so hard everyday, but she don't understand
I work, I work so hard and I bring it all on home
To her every Friday afternoon And the next day, my baby's gone away
She goes and spends it all
And don't want to give me nothing, yeah
She cuts me all the time She goes out and commits some bigger crimes to me
And she knows, and she knows, she knows that I feel it
And she knows, she don't wanna do that
She don't ever wanna do that Oh my baby she's always gone somewhere
Oh my baby she don't need no care
Oh she don't have very much to say, no, no
She don't have very much to say I said I no, no, no somehow
She's my love
[Incomprehensible]
She's my heart
[Incomprehensible]
But she's my love
[Incomprehensible] She's everything

She's everything
She's everything
