

King For A Day

Gino Vannelli & The Metropole Orchestra

Blinded by the magenta spotlight stands a disposable commodity don't a high price ticket make a star shine so bright a taste of immortality and the critics they call you the new boy wonder and you know just how to make a young girl cry the more you feed them the more they hunger as you watch the money multiply How does it feel to be?
how does it feel to be?

You got the whole damn world spinning 'round your middle finger hey! shoot a little skeet with the president and your mother loves you more for every dollar you bring her and your latest wife is worth every cent How does it feel to be?
how does it feel to be?

king ... for a day Blinded by the magenta spotlight stands a manufactured fantasy don't a high price ticket make a star shine so bright and the people love you endlessly
How does it feel to be?
how does it feel to be?
How does it feel to be?
how does it feel to be ... king
