

Cherry Lips

Garbage

She gave you everything she had
But she was young and dumb
She'd just turned twenty-one
She didn't care to hang around So when the shit came down
Why she was nowhere to be found
This life can turn a good girl bad She was the sweetest thing
That you had ever seen
You're such a delicate boy In the hysterical realm
Of an emotional landslide
In physical terms With your cherry lips and golden curls
You could make grown men gasp
When you'd go walking past them
In your hot pants and high heels Well, they could not believe
That such a body was for real
It seemed like rainbows would appear Whenever you came near
The clouds would disappear
Because you looked just like a girl Your baby blues would flash
And suddenly a spell was cast
You're such a delicate boy In the hysterical realm
Of an emotional landslide
In physical terms You hold a candle in your heart
You shine the light on hidden parts
You make the whole world wanna dance
You bought yourself a second chance Go baby, go go
We're right behind you
Go baby, go go
Yeah, we're looking at you Go baby, go go
Aw, we're right behind you
Go baby, go baby
Yeah, we're right behind you Go baby, go baby
Aw, we're right behind you
Go baby, go baby
Yeah, we're looking at you Go baby, go baby
Aw, we're right behind you
Go baby, go baby
Yeah, we're looking at you You hold a candle in your heart
Go baby, go go
You shine the light on hidden parts
Go baby, go go You make the whole world wanna dance

Go baby, go go
You bought yourself a second chance
Go baby, go baby, go Delicate boy
Go baby, go baby, go
In the hysterical realm
Go baby, go baby, go Of an emotional landslide
Go baby go baby go
In physical terms
Go baby, go go go Yeah, we're looking at you
Go baby, go go
Aw, we're right behind you
