We Won't Back Down

Escape The Fate

We're gonna burn your city
Gonna bring your system down
I'm gonna drown my pity
Turn this to a ghost town
And when you know there's nothing left
You're gonna run like all the rest
Pack your bags and turn your back on all the friends you had left
And it's time for us to live, yeah
It's my time, this is just a declaration of our vows
(whoa) We won't back down
It's my time, this is just your resignation from our lives
(whoa) We won't back down
We're gonna drown your ego
You're the legend no one knows,
You're an honest fake I know (You're an honest fake I know)
So now I drown my pity
In a pool of sorrow and shame
Until the day I forget your name

And you gotta let me live, yeah
It's my time, this is just a declaration of our vows
(whoa) We won't back down
It's my time, this is just your resignation from our lives
(whoa) We won't back down
It's time to forget what makes me sick, deep inside of me (deep inside of me)
It's time to forget what makes me sick, deep inside of me
And you've gotta let me live, yeah
It's my time, this is just a declaration of our vows
(whoa) We won't back down
It's my time, this is just your resignation from our lives
(whoa) We won't back down
We won't back down
We won't back down
We won't back down
