All I Need (feat. Tina K)

Daniel Vitellaro

Move to the other side I'll let you in
I just can't escape this, I won't give in Lead me back hold me close
I'm falling deeper don't let go
I'm broken hearted running free
I surrender, I surrender all I need.
All I need, you're all I need

For far too long I've searched the world for you
For too long I have lived a life alone
And scars will fade away broken hearted running free
Take a chance and just let go
I surrender all I need
All I need, you're all I need....
All I need.
