

Big Bad World

Jamie Lynn Spears

I fell hard for a boy one time
I can't say if it was love
Maybe it was how he wore his hat
Or just because he had a truck
I ran down a dock
And jumped in the boat
I gave that boy my heart
It was back in the time
When I thought you could buy
A new one at the Walmart

Oooooo,
It's a big bad world
Oooooo,
For a small town girl

I do my time in the Starbucks line
Giving up to chase the dream
I hear yes and I hear no
But it's hollow in between
I feel a little homesick,
To talk to someone
Who knows my name
I dig out a dollar
For the homeless man
But I'm the one that Could use the change

Oooooo,
It's a big bad world
Oooooo,
For a small town girl

I remember wondering
What was out there
Beyond this small town
Passed down simple plan
The city sure feels like
The middle of nowhere
There's no one here

To remind me who I am

Oooooo,
It's a big bad world
Oooooo,
For a small town girl

Oooooo,
It's a big bad world
Oooooo,
For a small town girl
