

Wings (The Pajama Sessions)[feat. Jedd Hughes]

Sarah Buxton

Love can be crazy
Magical things it can do
The places that it takes you to
I never thought that it was true Till you saw me standing
Facing the walls I can't climb
You lifted me up just in time
It's so perfect and divine You give me wings
So I can fly, at least that's
How it seems
Like angels do, I'm dancing in a dream
There's no fear or doubt
Up here in the clouds
'Cause you give me wings I'm only human
And I do the best I can do
Sometimes I fight and I lose
When I can't pull myself through,
You do You give me wings
So I can fly, at least that's
How it seems
Like angels do, I'm dancing in a dream
There's no fear or doubt
Up here in the clouds
'Cause you give me wings You take me high
Higher than the struggles in this life
And where I used to stumble
Now I rise above it all
Like I could never fall
'Cause you give me wings I am not an angel
But baby, understand
When I get around you
I feel like I am
Ain't runnin' any longer
Your love makes me stronger
Nothing is impossible
Anymore, anymore You give me wings
So I can fly, at least that's
How it seems
Like angels do, I'm dancing in a dream
There's no fear or doubt

Up here in the clouds
'Cause you give me wings You take me high
Higher than the struggles in this life
And where I used to stumble
Now I rise above it all
Like I could never fall
'Cause you give me wings You give me wings
You give me wings
